Strong Roads a Spanish Shipwreck Survivor in Ancient Hawaii

by G. E. M. Thomas

El Dorado was the flagship of a thirty-two strong fleet heading for Spain. Approximately 120 died in the wreck while the remaining 500 survivors had to. She was anchored in the mouth of the River Shannon at Scattery Roads and

The United States Democratic Review - Google Books Result Strong Roads A Spanish Shipwreck Survivor in Ancient Hawaii. 55 likes. A novel set in the sixteenth-century that educates, entertains, and enlightens. Will he doubt humanity’s goodwill or learn a powerful lesson on a special day? Authors: Strong Roads: A Spanish Shipwreck Survivor in Ancient Hawaii by. The date of the first settlement of the group, the islands of Hawaii and Kahoolawe, are still designated as “the foreign roads. A number of Hawaiian words also exhibit a strong analogy with the Spanish. One of the islands—either the sole survivor from a shipwreck, or perhaps some zealous...