Songtext von Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers - Learning To Fly Lyrics Learning To Fly is a song by Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers. It was written in 1991 by Tom Petty and his writing partner Jeff Lynne for the album Into the Great Wide Open. The song is about learning to fly and the challenges that come with it. It begins with the line “Well I started out down a dirty road / Started out all alone / And the sun went down as I...” and goes on to describe the feelings of isolation and the desire to escape. The song’s lyrics have been interpreted as a metaphor for the journey of life and the search for meaning. The song was well-received by critics and fans alike, and it has become one of Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers’ most beloved and frequently performed songs. The song’s catchy rhythm and simple melody make it a favorite among fans of the band. Overall, “Learning To Fly” is a timeless classic that continues to inspire new generations of listeners.
