Australia and the World: A Political Handbook

by M. Teichmann
This unit examines competing identities in global politics with a focus on the role of religion. It begins by analysing concepts of identity in the context of